Open Forum: AYSO Flower Festival Queen representative, Lillana Tinoco came and introduced herself to the board and told us all about herself and the fundraisers she is holding. She will be holding a BBQ, car wash, bake sale and a possible movie in the park if all the kinks can be worked out. The Premier will be held Mar. 20th at the Elk's tickets can be purchased for $15 at the Chamber of Commerce.

R.C. Report: Area meeting had been postponed again, nothing to report. Road show for Management will be held Mar. 20th, they will also be having intermediate and advanced referee training. The 4 teams that made it the Bakersfield play-offs unfortunately did not move on, but kudos to the Lompoc referees and field monitors they definitely represented!! Jose stressed the importance to the division directors that they must get the word out to their coaches that if they are going to possibly be interested in coaching all-stars they must be referee certified. Good job to the U-12 players Zavala, Carmona and Murray have all done super jobs this season with coaching, and U-14 Reyes did a great job as well. Any referees that would like to go to Bakersfield this weekend contact Joaquin asap. Katie did receive much feedback from the board in regards to the point system, so we will be opening it up to the public for any suggestions or constructive criticism. Opening ceremonies are planned for Aug. 28th at Lompoc High 5 pm; pictures will be same day 7:30 till 4 pm. First games will be held Sept. 11th and they will last thru Oct. 30th. The Austin Eckersley Tournament will be held Nov. 6th and 7th U-12 and U-10 boys, the following weekend will be U-14 and U-10 girls. Jose would like that those teams that win the Austin Eckersley Tournament show their support by participating in the Nipomo Turkey Shoot-out. AYSO summer camps will be held Aug. 9th – 13th the location TBD, preferably it will be held at Riverbend. Details about the summer camp will be available the website along with registration. Jose is hoping to offer a weekday evening soccer class for both parents and the kids to teach them the basic fundamentals of soccer and drills that can be worked on at home. John Valverde is now officially the new Asst. R.C. and Scott Barton will now be the new CVPA.

Referee Report: Joaquin was absent but sent a message thanking all those who came out and supported by refereeing the tournaments. Also to reiterate that there will be ref training Mar. 19th -21st at the road show. Joaquin hopes to have 3 local referee training courses.
